

Unknown Suspects Wanted for Robbery of Elderly Female and Credit Card Theft

Up to $1,000 Reward Offered

June 12, 2015

San Diego County Crime Stoppers and investigators from the San Diego Police Department's Mid-City Division are asking for assistance from the public to help identify and locate two unknown suspects who robbed an elderly female and later made fraudulent purchases with her credit cards.

On May 20, 2015, at approximately 8:30 p.m., a 70-year-old female was walking home along the 6700 block of Amherst Street, in the Rolando Neighborhood of San Diego. A male walked up to the victim and asked her the time of day. After the victim responded, the male began to follow her. The male then grabbed the purse off of the victim's shoulder and pushed her to the ground face first. The suspect's force was so great that it caused the victim to suffer several broken teeth and a fractured jaw. The male fled the scene.

Investigators discovered that the suspects had used the victim's credit cards to make fraudulent purchases at the Wal-Mart located at 5500 Grossmont Center Drive, in La Mesa.

Suspect Description: The main suspect (S-1) is described as a Black male who is between the ages of 18 and 25. A second suspect (S-2) is described as a Black male and is seen with S-1 while the stolen credit cards are being used at Wal-Mart.

Surveillance pictures of both suspects are attached to pages 2 and 3 of this release.

Anyone with information on the identity or location of the suspects is asked to call the SDPD's Mid-City Division at (619) 516-3000 or the Crime Stoppers anonymous tip line at (888) 580-8477. Crime Stoppers is offering up to a $1,000 reward to anyone with information that leads to an arrest in this case.
